Launched in 2016, the label an an londree represents brightly colored, luxurious and sustainable fashion. Our collection is characterized by a small number of silhouette-lines, available in various handmade fabrics, designed exclusively by an an londree. Due to the variety of our exclusive fabrics, each silhouette-line can be produced in many different versions and color-combinations.

We are especially proud of our handmade silk and velvet, which are all hand-printed and mainly hand-embroidered. Certified, professional and reliable business partners execute each of the production-design steps. Our anti-industrial approach promotes exclusive craftsmanship for sustainable fashion. For the production of every single meter of fabric, time and careful craftsmanship are needed and our designs are created with enormous attention to detail. Our silhouette-lines ranges from coat-dresses, shirts, jackets and dresses; we also offer several accessory items, like scarves and small bags. an an londree was founded in 2016 in Kitzbühel, Austria by Andrea Harisch and Angelika Paschbeck Follow us on Instagram! www.instagram.com/ananlondree
