at the Tortona 31/Archiproducts venue. Here, A.F. Vandevorst will also operate a pop-up show selling limited edition ready-to-wear and accessories.

Putting the focus on Belgian creativity, White will host in the same Tortona 31/Archiproducts area "The Belgian Focus," a project developed with Flanders DC, a nonprofit organization founded by the Flemish government to boost the business of the region's economy. Through the partnership, seven emerging companies, including sustainable underwear specialist Ophelia Lingerie, printed textile maker Marlène Madou, footwear brand Morobé, bag label Lies Martens, jewelry house Studio Collect, as well as ready-to-wear firms Mooiloop and Helder Antwerp, will showcase their creations in Milan.

The next edition of White will also see the participation of Fiorucci, which, as special guest of the trade show, will present its spring 2019 lineup in a dedicated area at the Tortona 27/Superstudio Più venue.
