Trade show aisles will soon be buzzing with buyers, brands and exciting new product for the spring/summer 24 season.

Menswear peacocks will flock to Florence-based Pitti Uomo between 13-16 June, while the Scandi set will hit Copenhagen Fashion Week (8-11 August) and CIFF x Revolver (9-11 August) – the first instalment of the two influential Danish trade shows since CIFF acquired Revolver in January.

For buyers looking for something closer to home, the UK has a whole summer full of exciting trade shows, including Just Around The Corner, Scoop, Pure London, Harrogate Fashion Week, Indx Man and Indx Woman.

The season will be rounded off with footwear trade show Micam (17-20 September) and White Milano (22-25 September), both based in fashion capital Milan.
